Discrimination in Places of Public Accommodation

Arizona law makes it unlawful for a public accommodation to discriminate because of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex or disability.

Examples of places of public accommodation may include:

- Restaurants
- Banks
- Hotels or motels
- Museums
- Parks
- Day care centers
- Health clubs
- Grocery and department stores
- Theaters
- Medical, dental or health care facilities

Persons who believe they have been discriminated against by a public accommodation because of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex or disability should file a charge with the Civil Rights Division of the Arizona Attorney General's Office within 180 days of the date the discrimination occurred.

There is no cost to file a charge.
